

Sue Minter (D)	Where the candidates stand on	Phil Scott (R)
Mixed	Using taxpayer dollars to fund private or religious schools	Support
Support	Ensuring women’s access to contraception without co-pay or cost-sharing, no matter where they work or go to school	Mixed
Support	Passing state or local measures requiring employers to provide earned, paid sick days to all employees	Mixed
Support	Improving existing state laws aimed at closing the gender pay gap	Mixed
Oppose	Maintaining the current minimum wage with no annual adjustments for inflation or increases for tipped workers	Support
Unknown	Supporting state laws that would invalidate local efforts to pass laws that advance women’s equality (often called preemption laws)	Unknown
Support	Increasing resources to vigorously enforce Title IX and other civil rights laws pertaining to education	Support
Support	Increasing state funding for higher education	Oppose
Unknown	Amending the U.S. Constitution to guarantee equal rights for men and women	Unknown
Unknown	Reducing barriers to voting like closing polling locations, eliminating early voting, and requiring voter identification	Unknown

This guide is a public service and is not intended to be an endorsement of any candidate or political party. Candidates’ positions were determined using their voting records, public statements, and campaign position papers, as well as information posted on the internet from trusted sources.

Support: Candidate has co-sponsored or voted for this legislation or has explicitly stated a policy position on the record with no ambiguity.

Oppose: Candidate voted against legislation or has explicitly stated a policy position on the record with no ambiguity.

Unknown: The candidate has taken no explicit or compelling public position.

Mixed: The candidate has made conflicting statements and/or votes on the issue or has taken a nuanced position.